Public invited

Trainers in the field of literacy and numeracy interested in gaining skills to promote the self-determination of learners.

Motivations

- Get familiarized with good practices that give a predominant place to the voicing of opinion, active participation and self-determination of learners.
- Promote meeting and exchanges of views at the European level to develop the quality of literacy in Europe.

Competences required

Knowledge of French or English is mandatory and knowledge of the other language is highly recommended. Indeed, most of the workshops will be unilingual (French or English). Written support and a general description of the workshop will be available in the other language.
